5. Membership rights

5.1 All members have the right to:

5.1.1 Participate in and be heard at the Annual General Meeting of the EUCCC;

5.1.2 Participate in activities held for members of the EUCCC; and

5.1.3 Invite guests to activities, which require invitation by members.

5.1.4 Propose and second any resolution in accordance with 9.4;

5.1.5 Vote on any resolution or motion in general meetings. Each member entitled to vote shall be entitled to cast one vote. The vote of a corporate member shall be cast by its nominee or proxy in a form determined by the ExCo. The vote of an individual member shall be cast by the individual member or by proxy in a form determined by the ExCo;

5.1.6 Be nominated for election as president, vice president and treasurer, provided however a) that individual members shall not have the right to be candidates for such positions and for area chair, but can be candidates as members of an area board upon express and prior approval by ExCo b) that the president shall be a representative of a corporate member of the European Union. Corporate members shall hold office in their individual capacity and not in the capacity of corporate member representative. The corporate members employer does not have the right to appoint a substitute to replace the elected corporate nomine; and

5.1.7 Cast votes in the election of the president, vice presidents and treasurer in accordance with 10.3 and 10.4. The vote of a corporate member shall be cast pursuant to Art. 7.1 hereof.

5.2 The honourary president has the right to participate and be heard in meetings of the Supervisory Board and to appoint a person from the European Union Delegation to represent him during these meetings.